Rules & Conditions

- This event is open to all who have paid their entry fees.
 - All participants must abide by the Countryside Code.
 - All participants must be properly equipped to deal with inclement mountain weather and it is recommended that walkers especially carry a compass together with OS map 147 or 187.
 - Any participant who drops out MUST report to an official to prevent unnecessary and costly searches being instigated.
 - All participants must obey instructions given by the marshals. Failure to do so will render the person outside the scope of our insurance and any consequences will be at the person's own risk.
 - Dogs must be kept under close control at all times, and placed on a lead should a landowner request it.
